A Patriotic Festival.

The members of Class 4 of the Metropolitan Baptist Sunday School entertained their teacher Mr. Daniel W. Chase, and a few friends with a "Patriotic Festival" on Thursday, the 22nd from 4 to 8:30 at the residence of Maggie Jordan 1019 U street, northwest. The program consisted of choice essays on "Eminent Negroes" by Maggie Jordan, Idella Smith, Jeannette Jordan, a class history by Rosa Washington; a class prophecy by Louise Washington; and a future letter by Charlotte West. A very choice vocal selection was well rendered by Emsie Key as was also a trio by Mamie Roberts and her two sisters. Besides those above mention were present Margaret Chase, Florence Bell, Mary Booker, Mamie Anderson, Luray Allen, Lelia Henderson, Clara Coles, Dora Lee Nettie Strother, Nettie Pryor, Mary Lee, Isabella Walker, Elise Ware, Elvey Johnson, Rosezena Alexander, Mamie Dorsey, Beatrice Davis, Nettie McElroy, Messrs. Henry Booker, Jesse Chase, Charles Pryor, Ottaway Hill, and Miss Marion Sumner.

In the Eleventh Division.

On Friday, Feb. 16, 1900 the teachers of the Eleventh Division were highly entertained by an unusually fine lecture by Dr. George H. Richardson, trustee of that division, his subject being "Industrial Education." Mr. E. W. Brown, supervising principal, read some excellent comments upon "Discipline" and showed a number of sketches of corporal punishment as inflicted in the schools of Washington. These sketches were taken from actual life by Felix Mahoney, of the Evening Star.

Several of our prominent choirs are on the alert for new Easter music. The choir of the 19th Street Baptist church, under direction of Mr. B. Washington promises to present an unusually excellent program of choruses and soloists.

Music lovers of Washington were given an opportunity to hear the famous Aeolian Mandolin and Guitar club render a musical at Odd Fellows' Hall, Wednesday evening. This is the largest and best mandolin club known, composed of colored performers. They were heard several times at our churches where they became prominently known for excellent rendition of some very difficult selections.

Mr. Benjamin Washington, had as a guest Mr. Percy Bond, of Boston; and Miss Mammie Lewis of Boston, stopped with the Bradfords. Their trip there was so enjoyable they hated to go and said they would return again very soon.

A Truly National Paper.

Dear Editor:—There is no bill I delight in saying more than the one which assures me of The Colored American for another year. The new form adds much to its appearance. You deserve great praise in giving us the only truly national colored newspaper.

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and after a few days use can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

In fact, every man whose time is precious, whose wages depend upon the actual time he puts in, should

WEAR ELECTUS SHOES

Why?

Because they can be put on or removed in one-tenth of the time that lace or button shoes occupy.
Because the Electus Clasp Fasteners are as firm as if locked, and will not pull out.
Because the waterproof Elastic Goring down the instep allows full play to the muscles of the feet.
Because wearers of Electus Shoes will not suffer from bunions, corns, or sore feet.
Because Electus Shoes cost no more than the old foggy corn and bunion developers.
Because we'll show the world, when the world knows our shoes!!!
